Butter Chicken

Instructions

1. Prep Everything
   Cut the chicken into bite-sized pieces. Mince all the garlic and ginger, slice the onion, and dice the bell peppers, then measure out everything marked with a spoon.

2. Marinate Chicken
   In a bowl, mix plain yogurt, garlic, ginger, garam masala, turmeric, cumin, chili powder, and salt. Add chicken pieces and mix so it is coated evenly. Allow to marinate for at least 30 minutes (or overnight in the fridge for deeper flavor).

3. Sear Chicken
   Heat a large skillet or pan over medium-high heat and add oil. Cook the marinated chicken in batches, searing until browned on all sides. Set aside.

4. Sauté Onions and Aromatics
   In the same skillet, melt butter or ghee and sauté onions until softened. Add garlic, ginger, and remaining spices (garam masala, ground coriander, and cumin) and cook until fragrant.

5. Build the Sauce
   Stir in crushed tomatoes, chili powder, and salt. Let the tomatoes cook for about 10–15 minutes until they are nearly dry in your pan, stirring occasionally until the sauce thickens and becomes a deep brown red color.

6. Add Cream and Season
   Add cream to the sauce in the skillet and stir well. Taste and adjust the salt.

7. Simmer Chicken and Peppers
   Add the seared chicken with its juices and the diced bell peppers to the sauce. Simmer for 8–10 minutes, until the chicken is cooked through, the peppers are tender but still have some bite, and the sauce is thick and bubbling.

8. Serve
   Garnish with chopped cilantro (if using) and serve with rice or garlic naan for a complete meal!
